

Who can be nominated?

Any non-government individual, group, business or association that you believe has made an outstanding contribution in areas such as recreational community leadership, restoring and enhancing fisheries and fish habitat or promoting conservation and sustainable recreational fishing.

What should be included as part of the nomination?

Each nomination should include:

- X A completed nomination form.
- X A brief history of the nominee.

- X A description of the project or achievement. This can include the following:
- The project or activity's contribution to conservation, improvement and/ or public awareness of Canadian recreational fisheries or their habitat.
- The positive benefits on recreational fisheries or their habitat and/or on public awareness.
- Evidence that the project has led to improved recreational fishing, increased fishing opportunities and/ or heightened public interest in recreational fisheries.
- Letters of support.

Is there a deadline for submitting the nominations?

Nominations are accepted throughout the year but nominations received after mid-August will be considered for the following year's Awards.

Who decides who gets an Award?

A national Selection Committee, with members from each Province and Territory, recommends five nominations to the Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, who makes the final decision.

How many Awards are given?

Five Awards are presented each year in the Spring.
