January 1, 2016.

Dear Volunteers:

Well another year has gone by and here we are again gearing up for camp. First of all I would like to say to all of you volunteers, thank you for all the hard work that you do. I know that sometimes life takes us away from what we all love doing, and I would commend you for the time you put in, even if it is at setup for a couple of days, or to help us put it all away. The work that you do, do is amazing and I am truly blessed and very much appreciative that all you do in which ever form you help. You are the leaders of tomorrow and you are making leaders for tomorrow so please take some time to give yourself a pat on the back.

If you are getting this letter for the first time, congrats. I would like to say, you have made an impression on us and we are glad and excited to make you part of our team out here at Narrow Lake, only a few get selected, so congrats.

So, down to the nitty gritty. There are a couple of housekeeping things that I would like to get out to you. With this I hope it clears up some issues arising from last camp. If you can only come out for a portion of the camp, please contact me and we will see how I can utilize your services. These are just an outline, but I would like to make sure that everyone knows, we are a team. We are all truly amazing when we work together, and I know it sounds cliché but TEAM, does stand for Together Everyone Achieves More, and I truly believe that. So thank you for taking the time to read this long winded, but vital letter.

With this, I would like to remind everyone what you do is amazing; you are the ones that change these campers lives with just who you are and what you do. Please remember this is a volunteer job, so if you can make it work, great, if not, there is always other ways to help. Thank you again for everything and please forward all your paperwork to me, since I need to know who and numbers. If you have any questions or concerns please call me, text me, facebook me; or come on by.

Sincerely;

Samantha Menzel
